Agent David Gottschall was positioned in a marked US Border Patrol Tahoe east of the checkpoint, in order to detect and interdict any attempts to evade or circumvent the checkpoint. At approximately 0845, Border Patrol Agents observed a green colored Ford sport utility vehicle abruptly slow down and veer into the driveway of a residence and farm stand located at 8169 State Route 11 in Chateaugay, NY. Based on Agent Gottschall's prior experience and the erratic maneuver performed in close proximity to the checkpoint operation Agent Gottschall immediately responded to the area, suspecting that the vehicle might be attempting to evade law enforcement. Agent Gottschall encountered the vehicle in the aforementioned driveway. 02/28/1961, identified himself as the brother of the owner of the residence and remained outside of the vehicle. Both subjects returned to their vehicle upon Agent Gottschall's request. Agent Gottschall relayed the vehicle information to dispatch, KAD 640. The vehicle was identified as a 1999 Ford Expedition, with license plate number- GKN 9631, registered to Luella Compton DOB: 02/07/1963. Agent Gottschall returned to the vehicle and identified both occupants as, COMPTON, Lorenzo DOB: 07/06/1985 and his brother COMPTON, Peter DOB: 08/16/1989, both sons of Luella COMPTON. Agent Gottschall immediately observed that both subjects were extremely nervous, to the point of shaking. Agent Gottschall looked through the windows into the vehicle and observed a blanket covering what appeared to be several bulky and round objects. Based on his experience Agent Gottschall knew that contraband is routinely concealed with blankets in order to prevent plain view observations from law enforcement officers or the public. Agent Gottschall suspected that the vehicle contained contraband and contacted Agent Taylor for K9 assistance. Utilizing Border Patrol Canine TIKO NCF#040901, Agent Taylor performed a canine sniff on the exterior of the vehicle. Canine TIKO alerted to the driver's side open window, Agent Taylor opened the door allowing TIKO to gain access to the interior of the vehicle. TIKO immediately jumped to the rear hatch area of the SUV and alerted to four duffle bags. The duffle bags were found to contain numerous vacuum sealed bags containing a green leafy substance. Both COMPTON, Lorenzo and COMPTON, Peter were placed under arrest and transported to the Malone Border Patrol Station for further processing. Agent Taylor performed a field test on the green leafy substance using Duquenois Levine Reagent 908, which identified the substance as marijuana. Agent Rascoe weighed the marijuana at approximately 145.5 pounds. Pictures of the subjects, vehicle, and narcotics were taken by Agent Rascoe. HSA Josh Fleming was contacted by BPA Porras and was advised as to the marijuana seizure. DEA was contacted and BPA Porras accepted the case. Both subjects, vehicle and marijuana were turned over to the DEA for investigation.
